Rakı

Rakı is a typical Anatolian product and a Turkish national drink.
The journey of rakı begins with grapes, anise, and the distillation process.
Its taste and appearance, which turns white when mixed with water, make rakı so special.

Rakı Varieties

Yeni Rakı

The classic rakı of Turkey. Since 1937, it has enjoyed great popularity not only in Turkey but also beyond. It is distilled from both raisins and grapes and refined with the finest anise, resulting in its distinctive character.

Glass 6 cl: €7.00
0,2 l : 30,00 € (incl. 0.5 l water)
0,35 l : 50,00 € (incl. 0.75 l water)
0,7 l : 90,00 € (incl. 2 × 0.75 l water)

Yeni Rakı Yeni Seri

The Yeni Rakı family is a carefully crafted rakı obtained from the distillation of fresh and dried grapes. It is combined with alcohol derived from sugar beet molasses and distilled a second time in special copper stills. The result is a balanced flavor profile developed by experienced rakı masters.

Glass 6cl : 8,00 €
0,35 l : 55,00 € (incl. 0.75 l water)
0,7 l : 100,00 € (incl. 2 × 0.75 l water)

Tekirdağ Altın Serisi (Gold)

A masterpiece of distillation. Made exclusively from grapes from the Çeşme region, double-distilled and aged for 90 days in oak barrels, where it acquires its golden hue. A high proportion of essential oils contributes to its smooth taste and soft aroma.

Rakı

Tekirdag Göbek

Tekirdağ Göbek Rakı is made 100% from fresh grapes and distilled using the so-called "heart cut" method (Göbek distillation), in which the purest part of the distillate is collected. It is sugar-free, has an alcohol content of 45%, and is characterized by intense anise and fresh grape aromas. With its full-bodied, oily and smooth mouthfeel, it offers a strong yet well-balanced character and is considered a premium rakı.

Beylerbeyi Göbek Rakı

100% grape distillate – no added agricultural alcohol, no added sugar. A pure rakı that sets new standards. It is distilled from the finest hand-selected grapes of the Aegean region and Kalinkoz anise. The elaborate triple distillation gives it an exquisite aroma and an exceptionally smooth finish. After each distillation run, only the heart is selected, which is why it is called Göbek, meaning "belly".

Peter Jakob Kühn – Riesling- Doosberg

The Peter Jakob Kühn Riesling Doosberg GG is one of the finest white wines of the Rheingau, perhaps even of Germany. Provided you do not like things too simple or too complicated. Its demanding core defines the wine. Two years of barrel aging, high extract and an exceptional vineyard site result in a wine that is concentrated and full-bodied, yet well structured and lively. Plenty of exotic stone fruit, a straight, invigorating acidity and pronounced minerality ensure excellent drinkability.

Red wine

Châteauneuf-du-Pape Maison Tardieu-Laurent

Grenache Noir, Syrah - AOP

Silky and smooth, with a pleasant mouthfeel and enormous intensity. In typical Tardieu style, this Châteauneuf-du-Pape does not rely solely on its abundant power but impresses with its elegance. Vinified from 75% Grenache, 15% Syrah and 10% Mourvèdre. Shaped by the red fruit character of Grenache, with flinty notes and ethereal aromas such as eucalyptus and mint on the nose. On the palate, darker and riper notes emerge, alongside red fruits like currant and strawberry, with a hint of blackberry. A particularly noble representative of this time-honored appellation.
